

Polish refugees in Teheran

According to Michael Hope in his "Polish Deportees in the Soviet Union":

First evacuation: Between 24th March and 4th April 1942 the Krasnovodsk depot received 33,039 military and 10,789 civilian evacuees... crossing the Caspian in batches in Soviet ships arriving in Pahlevi between 26th March and 10th April."

The second major evacuation across the Caspian Sea was between the 8th and 30th August 1940, consisting of 44,832 military and 25,437 civilians.
